

By the Senate, March 6, 1828.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The senate have had under consideration the bill, entitled, An act for the general valuation and assessment of property in this state, and they not having the constitutional power to amend what they consider the objectionable parts of said bill, respectfully propose a committee of conference on that subject. The senate have appointed on their part Messrs. Thomas, Lloyd, Herbert, Heath and Johnson.

By order,

Wm. Kilty, Clk.

Mr. Teackle then offered the following message for consideration:

By the House of Delegates, March 6, 1828.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message proposing a conference upon the bill, entitled, An act for the general valuation and assessment of property in this state, and concur therein. We have appointed on the part of this house Messrs. to confer with the gentlemen named by your honourable body.

Which being twice read, and the blank therein filled with the names of Messrs. Semmes, Steuart, of Baltimore, Tilghman, Fitzhugh, Taney, Teackle, and Thomas of Saint-Mary's, it was agreed to.

Messrs. M'Mahon, Semmes, Thomas, of Cecil, and Sellman, on their respective applications, were severally excused from further service as members of the select committee raised on the several subjects connected with the recording of certain papers of the court of chancery; and Messrs. Steuart of Baltimore, McNeill, Fitzhugh, and Somervell, were appointed to supply the vacancies thereby occasioned.

The house then adjourned until this evening five o'clock.

THURSDAY EVENING, FIVE O'CLOCK,

March 6, 1828.

The house met pursuant to adjournment. Were present the same members as in the morning.

Mr. Steuart of Baltimore presented the petition of Rebecca Hartman, of the city of Baltimore, praying for a divorce from her husband Ferdinand Hartman; which was referred to the committee on divorces.

Mr. Price reported a bill, entitled, An act to provide for the division of Baltimore county into election districts. And

Mr. Douglas of Caroline, reported a bill, entitled, An act to fix the compensation of justices of the levy court, commissioners of the tax and jurors, in Caroline county.
